KQED/NPR San Francisco came up to the North Lake to interview the CC and TC VFDs about Rural Health in Northern California. They did a great series, well worth listening to. A link to the interview is on NorthTrinityLake.com

Plan to attend the CCVFD Pancake breakfast on August 8 at the Coffee Creek Fire Hall from 9am to 12:30pm. $10 for adults and $5 for children under 6 years old.

The Trinity Lake Fest was a tremendous success. The event would not have been such a success without wonderful sponsors, wineries, workers, vendors, and attendees. Thanks to Redding Four Wheel, Mercer-Fraser, Alpen Cellars, the Mogensen Family, Rieke's Construction, Kathy and Jerry Hunter, Redwood Marine, Trinity Lake Lions, Jim Marcus, Roger and Karen Goetz, and Eureka Natural Foods for their generous sponsorship.

To our local wineries that graciously gave their time and wine: thank you--Alpen Cellars, Dogwood Estate, Meredith Family, Mount Tehama, and One Maple. You guys are terrific. We heard numerous comments about the quality of local wines. The wine was paired to the music perfectly by Aimee Fackrell Nolte and Hideaki Tokunaga.

Our 18 cookoff contestants wowed attendees with awesome appetizers. The appetizers were so good that the judges could not decide how to break a first place tie. The two 1st place winners were Anne Bryant; and Carol Fall and Pat Frost. Thank you cookoff judges: Norm Covell (Sacramento), Phil Johnson (Eureka), Eunice Anderson, Pat Banducci, Mike Mayo, and Sandra Hickman (Covington). Other Judge's Choice winners were 3rd place Kim Mazzei, 4th Billy Higgs, 5th Rose Andrews, 6th Max Hochman, 7th Kim Mazzei, and 8th Betty Jenner. Showmanship award went to Betty Jenner. And, Crowd Favorite went to Max Hochman.

Thank you to vendors and equipment lenders: Lost Coast Brewery, Trinity County Office of Education, Trinity Journal, and Redding Distributing. Hats off to the Weaverville Clampers for driving up and cooking up their delicious sandwiches for the hungry crowd.

A special thanks to Rose Andrews, an annual North Lake vacationer, for running our Silent Auction. Your efforts rock! Thank you to auction donors Bonanza King Resort, Trinity Lake Resort, Steve and Cheryl Mogensen, Vinnie and Rose Andrews, Pete Ulrich, The Lube Rack, Lynn Hartley, Page Massey, and KOA Trinity Lake.

Thank you to donors Jenny Luome, Diane Rieke, Robert and Kim Mazzei, Lynn Hartley, Mike McHugh, Annie Bryant, Linda Baird, Roger and Sue Chatterton, Robert and Hannah Cornell, Pat and Dave Forbes, Marla Peckinpah, Judith Stewart, Spencer Construction, and Pat McDonald.

The event ran smoothly due to hours of work by Steve Mogensen, Mardi Gillum, Brian Bogdanich, Linda Magni, Pat Sprick, Lois Veit, Pat McDonald, Bonnie and Keith Groves, Robin Reilly, Ken Rieke, Dwight Stewart, Bob Bryant, Pete Ulrich, Gerry Capstick, Vinnie Andrews, Jack Mitchell, Jeri Wrangle, Mary Bogdanich, Kate Eckels, and Chris St. Onge.

And last, thank you to the residents that loaned us their 80+ deck chairs for the music seating. We will see everyone next year at the 2nd Annual Trinity Lake Fest!
