

North Forty – 09/08/10 edition
by Tony S. Valls – tonysv@tds.net

Part of the County Fair in Hayfork is about the animals. This year we had some winners from the North Trinity Lake area. Our local livestock auction winners are Brad Bergland, Sammy Duhman and Leah Grooves. Brad sold a pig, Sammy sold two turkeys and Leah sold one pig and one sheep. They all got great prices for their livestock. Leah also placed 8th in showmanship for pigs and 4th for sheep. A special thanks for support go to Tops, Amerigas, Northern Lights Energy, Fred and Linda Maddox and Cris Watkins.

A great big thank goes out to Dave Forbes, Roger Goetz, Hal Pflueger, Mike McHugh, and Lee Wachsmuth who volunteered their time to mow the entire Trinity Center airport. The job took 15 hours to complete.

School is in session and so begins a couple extra curricular activities at Coffee Creek and Trinity Center schools. The North Lake Mustangs, our local volleyball team, begins practice on Wednesdays from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. at the Coffee Creek School court. Volleyball is open to all students grades fifth through eighth. No experience is necessary. Players are asked to bring good running shoes, water and a snack. Trinity Center School's Art Club will begin Monday, Sept. 13 from 3 to 4:30 p.m. and will be held every Monday. This after school program is open to all students between first and eighth grade.

Fall Colors in Coffee Creek Art Show is a new event for the North Lake Trinity Area. The art show is Sat., Oct. 2 at the Coffee Creek Community Church Community Center. The art show will feature photography and art work from around Coffee Creek and the North Lake Trinity Area. More details about the event are still to come.

A photography workshop will be offered as part of the Fall Colors event. Landscape photographer John Bradford will conduct the workshop. The workshop is Oct. 2 from 10 a.m. to 5:30 (with a lunch and photo break at 11:30). The cost is $20. Call Debbie Amos at 266-3200 to sign up and for more information.

After taking in some art, head over to the Coffee Creek Fire Hall for a barbeque dinner. The dinner is Sat., Oct. 2 from 4 to 7 p.m. The menu includes tri tip, beans, salad and an ice cream Sunday for dessert. The cost is $12 per person.

The Fire Flies are hosting a pancake breakfast Sun., Oct. 3 from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The cost is $10 and includes pancakes, sausage, fruit, coffee and juice.

Sun. Oct. 3 is a guided hike to Stoddard Lake. Meet at Bonanza King Resort at 475 Coffee Creek Road at 9 a.m. The cost is $10 and that includes a tee shirt and expert guide service. Brian and Mary Bogdanich and Jerry Rangel will guide the hike. Be sure to bring your hiking boots, a hat or visor, backpack, water or electrolyte drink, a lunch, sun screen, bug spray, a first aid kit, water shoes and a camera. For more information, call Brian or Mary at 266-3305.
