A free North Lake seniors Christmas dinner is on Saturday, 12/13 at the TC Community Hall starting at 6:00pm. The dinner, sponsored by the North Lake Lions Club, includes a full holiday meal including turkey, ham, cranberries, dessert, and a drink. The Lions can provide transportation to and from the hall and home deliveries. Please make a reservation by calling Cindi (266-3504) or Cheryl (226-3216) by 12/8.

Are you a North Lake artist? The annual Craft Faire, at the TC Community Hall on Saturday 12/6 from 10am to 4pm, welcomes artists of all types. To request a sales table location, please call Jenny DeWolf (266-3644).

The new CC Community Hall at CC Church was inaugurated last Saturday, at the community Thanksgiving dinner. The hall will be a great gathering place for youth and adults. The free dinner was well attended and everyone enjoyed the chance to visit with their neighbors.

Secret Santas are in their workshops making "give a gift" ornaments for NTL children. The ornament will be on display and waiting for your selection after 11/22 at Sasquatch Restaurant and Yellow Jacket Grill. If you want to help make ornaments, wrap gifts, or refer a family, please call Virginia (266-3518) or Lynn (266-3980).

CC Elementary School is holding a "Silent Auction" for 1½ cords of cut cedar rounds (16–18") for firewood, starting Monday, 11/17 and ending Friday, 12/5. The auction proceeds go to the school's Student Enrichment Fund. Call the school to place a bid (266–3344.) Leave your name, phone number and your bid. The wood can be viewed from Coffee Creek Road, at the west side of the school property

Jaktri Market has special Thanksgiving hours – closed Thanksgiving Day, open Friday and Saturday 8am to 2pm, open Sunday 9am to 5pm. Take advantage of the 50% "Mall" sale and don't forget the "Eyeglasses for Sight 10% discount." Bring in a pair of glasses for the Lions Club's eyesight program and receive a 10% discount on all purchases (excluding liquor, tobacco, and fuel.)

TC School Booster Club is holding their annual pancake breakfast and Christmas tree sale Sunday 11/30 at the Sasquatch, starting at 8am. You can find tall, beautiful trees at a reasonable price and for a very good cause.

Trinity County fire department auxiliaries are invited to a Christmas party at Marino's restaurant in Weaverville on 12/12 at 11:00am. This is a full turkey meal with all the trimmings. The cost is $10 per person. An optional gift exchange follows the lunch. Call Pat 266-3500 by 12/5 for your reservation.

A quick reminder that the TCCSD board has an open position. Applications are due by 12/1. Please see the NTL website (northtrinitylake.com) for position term and application details. You can also pick up information at JL ATV Products in TC.

Also at the December TCCSD meeting, starting at 7:00pm, is the continuation of our Fire Safe planning. Alex Cousins, TCRCD, returns to help us start our community plan to reduce our fire fuel. This plan will affect properties throughout the NTL area. Please plan to attend this very important meeting.

A free online Community Roundtable Forum is up and running on the NTL website. This moderated forum allows anyone to post comments, ideas, concerns, and questions about any topic of interest. We hope the Roundtable facilitates great communications for the entire NTL area. The Roundtable includes an area for classifieds, Trinity Lake issues, Fire Safe discussion, and much more. Take a look at www.northtrinitylake.com, click on the Roundtable link.

Welcome Bob Bryant, our new TCVFD and CCVFD Medical Director. Bob has been a VFD member for many years and works for Trinity County Life Support. Bob is responsible for VFD medical training and ambulance operations. Bob is certified to teach First Aid, First Responder and CPR for Health Care Professionals training. Oh, a note from home, your wife would like to know where the remote control is and asks that you turn on your cell phone.
